

INVITATION

Theme

Social Justice, Economic Inclusion and Immigration: Exploring the social justice dimensions of polarising nationalism and xenophobia concerning employment and informal sector opportunities.

The broad objective of the event is to explore the social justice implications of historic and recent resurgence in discontent toward foreigners in South Africa, immigration policy, utilisation of business opportunities and employment in the formal and informal sectors of the economy. The secondary aim is to explore the nature of Xenophobia through a Social Justice anchored human rights lens.
