

INVITATION

Social Justice and the Law: Course

21 – 23 November and 28 – 30 November 2022

The Social Justice and the Law short course is designed to empower participants with socio-legal knowledge on the meaning, significance, theories, constitutional obligations, and everyday application of the concept of social justice.

Course Purpose:

to equip participants with conceptual knowledge, values, skills and praxis that optimally positions them to make sound decisions and/or provide competent advice to decision-makers in government, business and civil society on legal and socio-economic questions and social justice litigation.

Course Aims:

to arm participants with insights and the necessary tools to understand their legal obligations regarding social justice and related equality duty and defend their social justice transformation agenda against pushbacks, including those that leverage administrative law.

Venue:

Hybrid (online and Faculty of Law Stellenbosch)

Price: R10 950

Enquiries: Mr Emile Vercuil – vercuil@sun.ac.za

Stellenbosch

UNIVERSITY
IYUNIVESITHI UNIVERSITEIT

forward together
sonke siya phambili
saam vorentoe

 socialjustice@sun.ac.za

 Social Justice Chair @CFSJ_MPlan

 Social Justice M-Plan